HUMAN TRAFFICKING

What is Human Trafficking? Practical Basic Information for Social Workers, Case Managers, Counselors and other Clinicians

Presenters:

Margaret I. Wolski, ME, LSW

Donna A. Rennard, LCPC, CAADC, CCPS, SRT, MISA II

Margaret received her Social Work and Sociology degrees from Carrol University in Waukesha, WI. She has a Master's in Education from AIU. Prior to her move to Illinois, Margaret was an LSW in the state of Wisconsin.

She has Case Management and Supervision, Foster Care, Domestic & International Adoptions, Crisis Intervention, Training and Curriculum Development in several service aspects, as well as 4 years of volunteer experience with New Name, a church based ministry providing outreach to victims of sex trafficking.

Donna has been a therapist at a Drug and Alcohol Treatment Center for twenty years, serving as Program Director for the last four years. She has trained student interns at the Associates Bachelors, and Masters level. Donna's clinical specialties include working with chemically dependent persons and their families, victims of sexual and physical abuse, women's issues, and maladaptive anger. Donna regularly uses EMDR to help children, youth and adults struggling with unsettling experiences. She has taught classes at College of DuPage for the last five years. Donna also volunteers with New Name ministry.

Human trafficking is a multi-layered world-wide problem. This discussion will touch on recognition of trafficking, prevention, and treating/working with victims/persons at risk.

What resources may be available to those working in the field of social services to assist those at risk?

What geographic locations within the United States and countries abroad are most notorious for human trafficking?

These are just some of the questions that will be discussed.

I will be attending the training on Monday, January 22, 2018 at 8:45 am
